

BATTLE OF THE WIKIS

In the past week, MicroWiki moved to it's own, private server. This server is located at microwiki.co.cc. Due to MW's move, the wiki farm that formerly hosted MicroWiki, Wikia, opened the wiki up for adoption. This meant that the wiki on wikia, instead of being kept an archive like the community planned, would be artificially resurrected by the wikia staff. The staff removed the new wiki's advertisement on the front page, protected the page, and removed all current admins. Obviously, the community did not take kindly to this. Sir Philip Fish, MicroWiki admin, called the Wikia staff, “Draconian simpletons.”

The wikia staff opened up applications for... (see page 2)

...adoption of the wiki. Aldrich Lucas, also an Administrator, applied to adopt the wiki. However, his request was denied by the wikia staff, who said it would not be in wikia's best interest to have the adopter be a supporter of the wiki's move to a private server.

Well liked admin Kyng Fyrst of the Slinky Empyre, who did not support the move, soon applied to take control of the wiki. His application was accepted. However, instead of making the wiki an archive, like the community's decision, Fyrst decided to make MicroWikia independent, and active. This caused a full blown controversy. (see page 4)

Intermicronational Rugby League Begins

The Intermicronational Rugby league was recently started by the DES Senya. This is not the first attempt at an intermicronational rugby league, and still none have registered with the MUSC. The League will host a world cup in 2014.

Checkers Match Will Not Be Held (Olympics)

Parker I, Facilitator of the Micronational Olympics (2010) has announced that a checkers match will not be held between Kenny Harber of Garagstan and Yan I of YAN. Both parties had troubles in the time of the event. There was also a problem of lack of communication. As the day turns to the 19th of November, the event's time period expires. The Secundomian Olympic Committee is currently working out the result.

The MicroWiki community was quick to criticize Fyrst's move. Mr. Fish says “Fyrst told nobody else about the move.”

King Anthony of Zealandia said “I am Ped off with both kyng [sic] and wikia [sic] for trying to split the community I love in half.”

The proceedings between the two wikis are currently taking place, and the Kyng does not seem to be letting up anytime soon.
